OFFICE HOURS TO OFF-DAYS

Corporate in Color's End of Season Summer Edit

Linen Trousers

Breezy yet polished, linen trousers are your summer wardrobe's icon. These pants move effortlessly between work and weekend PLUS, the lightweight fabric keeps you cool while the tailored cut keeps your look crisp.

What to mix it with?

Tip: I'd snag these in at least 2 colors!

Poplin Shirt

A summer staple that can do no wrong! This classic cotton poplin shirt can be dressed up or down depending on your mood. Instead of white this season, opt for a colored stripe pattern and mix and match with bottoms to fit the scene. Our personal favorite is an oversized short to create a bold shape.

What to mix it with?

Tip: Size up and get the waist tailored to create some drama

Cotton A-line Dress

This A-line dress will make busy mornings a breeze. We love dresses for one-step looks to look our best even when running errands. Swap out your shoe for a more casual or dressed up vibe and be sure to accessorize!

What to mix it with?

Tip: Shoes can define a dressed up or down look. Do what feels right for you and your day.

Sleeveless Vest

This is a trend we've loved for a while and it's a great alternative to a regular regular top. We love the longer waist options too and it's perfect for a more trendy or smart casual office space that allows for some self-expression.

What to mix it with?

Tip: If barrel jeans feel too trendy for you, go with a simple trouser in the same color for a 10/10 monochromatic look

Accessories

Here are a few staples that should be in your closet. If not, snag them here as the glue that keeps the look together.

Black Sunglasses

The "Take Me Everywhere" Purse

Classic watch

Initial pendant

Pearl studs

Dainty hoops

Tortoise shell sunglasses
